Update : Bible Study Day 24th November Church House, Melbourne. 10am – 4pm.

Canon Tony and I have now met to finalise this and we have pleasure in updating you as follows.

The Programme:

- 10am Welcome and Worship
- 10.15am Session 1. Getting to know the Bible. Where does it come from?
Texts and Translations.
- 11am Tea/Coffee
- 11.15am Session 2, Discerning Gospel characteristics.
- 12.30pm Lunch and Wedding!
- 2pm Making links with the Scriptures – the Nature of the Kingdom.
- 2.45pm Tea/Coffee
- 3pm Introduction to the Fourth Gospel (John).
- 3.45pm Prayer and close.

A really good number have signed up so far but we could squeeze a few more in if you still want to sign up. Due to the size of the room numbers will close at 20.

You will need to bring with you:-

A Bible of your choice.

A Pen

And YOUR LUNCH.

Tea/Coffee and biscuits will be provided (and a dish put out for donations towards the cost)

It would be good to know which of those coming are involved in the wedding arrangements so that we can ensure that you are accommodated for around the lunch timings.

This is a wonderful opportunity for us to be guided by Canon Tony and look at the Bible with fresh eyes together. We look forward to sharing this time with you.
Canon Tony, Revd Margaret and Allan.

Sun 16 Dec Junior Church Nativity at 10:30am

Hospitality Sunday - 25th November:

What is it?

On Hospitality Sunday we give and receive hospitality by having lunch together after the Sunday Service in our homes in small groups (4-10 people). This is a great way to get to know each other better and have lots of fun.

How does it work?

We need people to host and people to be guests! If you feel you are able to provide a meal for 4-10 people then sign up to be a host or if you would prefer to have a meal cooked for you then sign up to be a guest. I will then match up the hosts with the guests. If you are willing to host then make sure you write down how many guests you can cater for. There are now sign up sheets at the back of church.

Rachel Short

House Group news and a new name...

The next meeting of those seeking the Living Waters is on Monday 19th November at No. 63 Jubilee Close at 10.30am. It will be a House Eucharist featuring liturgy, which Canon Mark Powell prepared for use on Lundy and will be led by Revd Margaret with Mary Hirst assisting. This will be followed by a discussion about the Eucharist and what it is and then sharing what it means to us individually. Please do come along and as usual let me know so Allan and I can arrange seating and catering.

Melbourne Parish Church Choir

presents a liturgical performance of

“Requiem Mass”

by Gabriel Fauré

in the Parish Church

Wednesday 7th November 2018

at 7.45pm

Poppies:

We are looking for a volunteer to put out the ceramic poppies for display outside on the north side of the church building. Could one or two people ideally please contact Kate on 862153 if you're able to do it. Many thanks in advance. Also on the poppies front we shall be hosting the Festival poppies on the north side of church in the lead-up to Armistice Day. Kate Landenberger

Angels S.O.S.

We need someone to fill a gap in our washing-up rota – 10-11.15 (ish) on alternate Wednesdays in term-time. The remaining dates this term are November 7, 21; December 5, 19. Please speak to me if you can help.

Alison Gregory

Cuppa and Cake:

Thank you to everyone who came to or contributed to our Cuppa and Cake morning last week. We made just over £160 which was a splendid result and means we can purchase packs of 'Helpful books for children' for five schools.

Alison Gregory

The Children's Society:

Just a reminder from Avril Harrison that she would like Box Holders to kindly return their donations either to her, Tel: 862013 or to the Church, this month of November. Thank you so much.

Pool Cottage:

The Church will be holding a service of Holy Communion at Pool Cottage next Tuesday, 6th November at 3pm. All are invited to come along and support the Clergy and residents.

Cake bakers needed:

It is that time of the year again the Autumn Fair is on the horizon and one of the bestselling items at the event are cakes and we never have too many. If you can bake a cake for the stall or even two it would be absolutely great. Cakes can be brought to the Assembly Rooms on Saturday 17th November before 10am wrapped ready for sale. I know what excellent cake bakers we have in the congregation so please use your talents for this very worthy cause: Melbourne Church.

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am:

First Reading: Isaiah 25.6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples

a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain

the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death for ever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day,

Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

The Gospel Reading: John 11.32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

Additional Collect:

God of holiness,
your glory is proclaimed in every age:
as we rejoice in the faith of your saints,
inspire us to follow their example
with boldness and joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
